

Dear Parents,

Next week will be the start of our whole school focus on Easter. During our forest school session next week, the children will be making their own miniature Easter Gardens. The children will need to bring into a school a small plastic rectangular tray or container to make their Easter garden in. Please could you ensure that your child has their container in school ready for their Forest School session.

Thank you

Mrs Summers

