

Day of the Dead Comprehension Questions

1. What is Day of the Dead?

2. When is Day of the Dead celebrated?

3. Who is the 'Lady of the Dead'?

4. Name three things that people do on Day of the Dead.

5. What is an ofrenda?

6. What is Finados?

7. Where does the celebration of Halloween come from?

8. What other festivities are there that remember the dead? Name two.

Day of the Dead Comprehension Questions Answers

1. What is Day of the Dead?

Day of the Dead is a three day celebration in which the dead are remembered with festivities and prayers in Mexico.

2. When is Day of the Dead celebrated?

It is a three day celebration from October 31st to November 2nd. Students may mention the names of the different days in their answers.

3. Who is the 'Lady of the Dead'?

The original Lady of the Dead was the Aztec goddess Mictecacihuatl but the artist Posada also created La Calavera Caterina, who is a skeleton dressed in the clothes of an upper-class woman of 19th century Mexico which acted as a memento mori (remember you must die) to the people of Mexico.

4. Name three things that people do on Day of the Dead.

A variety of answers may appear here that may include: The decoration of graves and tombs, ofrendas or altars in the house, picnics by the graveside of loved ones and the telling of stories about their relatives.

5. What is an ofrenda?

This is a private altar, often set up at the graveside or in the home. It is used to offer up food and drink to the spirits of the ancestors – in other cultures a spirit house might be used.

6. What is Finados?

This is the Brazilian festival for the dead, celebrated at the same time as the Mexican one.

7. Where does the celebration of Halloween come from?

Halloween probably comes from the Celtic celebration of Samhain when it was believed that the dead walked the earth. People protected themselves by wearing masks which led to the tradition of costume wearing on this day.

8. What other festivities are there that remember the dead? Name two.

Students might mention Oban, Memorial Day or Remembrance Day here.